

Royal Bobble Crown

This is a great pattern to stretch the new knitter, because it is small and works up fast. It is knit flat and seamed together.

Supplies:

- yarn: 2 balls of the Lion's Brand Bonbon yarn (38 yds each) (DK or sport weight yarn will work)
- needles: size US 2
- tapestry needle
- scissors

Gauge:

The gauge is hard to measure on this. It is roughly 7 st/inch. The "real" measurement in this crown is One Point. For me, that measurement is 1.25" per point, flat and not stretched at all.

Abbreviations:

- s = slip a stitch purlwise
- k = knit
- p = purl
- yo = yarn over
- MB = make bobble
- kf = knit front
- kb = knit back

Pattern:

You are knitting the crown in one long piece, which you will seam together. So, odd side rows are when you knitting from the forehead towards the point. On even rows, you are knitting from the point down to the forehead.

Cast on 9

Row 1: s1, k5, yo, k3 (10 stitches)

Row 2: k (This is for all even rows. The exception to this is on row 12, after you have made the bobble)

Row 3: s1, k5, yo, k4 (11 stitches)

Row 5: s1, k5, yo, k5 (12 stitches)

Row 7: s1, k5, yo, k6 (13 stitches)

Row 9: s1, k5, yo, k7 (14 stitches)

Row 11: s1, k5, yo, k7, MB (directions below)

Row 12: (After doing the 5 rows for the bobble you will have the one stitch left on the needle) cast off 6 stitches. Knit the remaining stitches. (9 stitches will be on the needle)

Repeat these 12 rows until you have formed enough points to fit around your intended head. On the last repeat, do not do row 12 as above, but follow the instructions below.

Finish the last repeat:

Row 12: cast off the 6 stitches, then cast off 2 more (8 total)

Row: 13: s1, k6

Row 14: s1, k6

Row 15: s1, k6

Cast off.

Those three extra rows form a piece that will jigsaw nicely into that turned piece that forms at the beginning of the work.

Seam the crown carefully.

Bobble:

Row 1: kf, kb, kf, kb, kf into the same stitch

Row 2: s1, k4

Row 3: s1, k4

Row 4: s1, k4

Row 5: s1, s1(2), s1 (3), pass 2nd stitch over the 3rd stitch, s1, pass the 3rd over the 4th. S1. Pass the 4th over the 5th. now, with the first and last stitch on the needle, slip the first over the last. The last stitch will stay on the needle. (That is the end of the bobble.)

Continue on, following the directions for row 12.
